

THE MIDDLETON CENTER

for pastoral care and counseling

The Middleton Center Practitioner

Laurel Roe, MS, is currently an MFT Intern at Council for Relationships with an M.S. in Counseling and Human Relations from Villanova University. She uses a strengths-based, systems approach to work collaboratively with clients with diverse backgrounds as they navigate life's challenges. Special areas of interest include working with people in all stages of family and personal development as well as supporting families who include members with special needs.

Specialties:
Special education
School Counselor
Children and Families