CALL TO CONFESSION AND PRAYER OF CONFESSION (in unison)

You have promised, O Lord, to forget your anger and remember our sins no more.

We confess that we have not always walked in your paths or trusted your promises.

We look for security in the wrong places,
and fail to lean on your mighty, outstretched arm.

We are distracted by worries and we do not see the favor of your grace surrounding us.

We desire the things that will not last and neglect the abundant gifts of your Spirit.

Wake us up to your goodness and mercy,
and forgive us so that we may be restored by your abundant love.

A moment of silence for personal reflection and confession.

† AFFIRMATION OF FAITH (A Declaration of Faith)

Richard Wohlschlaeger

As in the early Christian community, so in the centuries since,
the Spirit has formed and identified the church.

We acknowledge the true church of Jesus Christ
wherever the work of the Spirit is evident:
in preaching and sacraments,
in the new life and continuous growth of believers,
in sharing of the spiritual gifts and material things,
in mission and service to the world.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE AND THE LORD'S PRAYER

Richard Wohlschlaeger

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

pass it down your row and back again.*

OFFERING AND

OFFERTORY ANTHEM Come Down, O Love Divine Ralph Vaughan Williams
Sanctuary Choir

Come down, O Love divine, seek thou this soul of mine, and visit it with thine own ardor glowing. O Comforter, draw near, within my heart appear, and kindle it, thy holy flame bestowing. O let it freely burn, till earthly passion turn to dust and ashes in its heat consuming; and let thy glorious light shine ever on my sight and clothe me round, the while my path illuming. And so the yearning strong with which the soul will long, shall far out-pass the power of human telling; for none can guess its grace, till he become the place wherein the Holy Spirit makes his dwelling.

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow; praise God, all creatures here below;
praise God above, ye heavenly host; praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Amen.

PRELUDE

Today's prelude is the American premiere of a work Edward Landin commissioned by American organist and composer Pamela Decker. The world premiere took place this past August during a recital he gave at the Evangelische Saalkirchengemeinde in Ingelheim am Rhein, Germany. Please enjoy the following notes the composer has written about her new piece:

Praeludium was commissioned by the American concert organist Edward Landin as a tribute to the north German Baroque composer and organist Dieterich Buxtehude (1637-1707). The north German stylus phantasticus—with its many influences and references, including the toccata tradition, the prevalence of improvisation, rhetoric, Italian elements, French opera, 16th-century polyphony, fugal procedures, and the German concept of Affekt—was exemplified in brilliant and glorious fashion by the organ preludia of Buxtehude. Improvisatory and theatrical opening passages (the exordium) led to fugues that would dissolve into dramatic silences (the aposiopesis described by music theorist Joachim Burmeister), followed by newly-arriving fugues alternating with toccata-like flourishes. Fugal segments were considered to be a “confirmation” (the confirmatio) of established material within the work, while some of the more adventurous passages were seen as presenting argument (the confutatio). Finally, these preludia conclude with the peroratio, which comprises a brilliant summary and conclusion. This commissioned Praeludium of our own time pays homage to the many influences that resulted in the stylus phantasticus; at the same time, the harmonic and melodic materials belong to a 21st-century language based on synthetic modes and multicultural elements that range across many musical categories (South American rhythms, flamenco modal patterns, German contrapuntal devices, etc.). The rhetorical elements of exordium, confirmatio, confutatio, and peroratio are very much alive and present in the work. The boundaries of these segments might be drawn in various ways depending upon an individual performer's view, but the rhetorical “anatomy” is in evidence. The intention is to celebrate Buxtehude's drama, color, and vitality while speaking in a modern language.
