CALL TO CONFESSION

Kate Lautenbach

AND PRAYER OF CONFESSION (in unison)

Forgiving God, we know how much you love us.
But we often lose sight of what is most important to you and follow what seems most important to us.

† Please stand, if able. * Ushers may seat latecomers.

We admit that we follow our selfish tendencies
to pass judgement, to look upon others with envy,
and to help ourselves before helping others.

Forgive us with your immeasurable love
so that we may accept others with open arms, know that in your eyes we are all equal,
and give before we take.

In Jesus' name we pray.

A moment of silence for personal reflection and confession.

ASSURANCE OF PARDON

*† GLORIA PATRI (in unison)

(Hymnal 581)

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost; as it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be, world without end. Amen, Amen.

RESPONSE TO THE WORD† AFFIRMATION OF FAITH (in unison)

John Lautenbach

We trust in Jesus Christ, fully human, fully God.

Jesus proclaimed the reign of God:

preaching good news to the poor and release to the captives, teaching by word and deed and blessing the children, healing the sick and binding up the brokenhearted, eating with outcasts, forgiving sinners, and calling all to repent and believe the gospel.

With believers in every time and place, we rejoice that nothing in life or in death can separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit. Amen

~ from A Brief Statement of Faith

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE AND THE LORD'S PRAYER

Anna Daley-Gibson

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

TODAY'S MUSIC

features the Robert Hauptfuhrer Memorial Harpsichord.

All three pieces the children and youth are singing this morning were composed by female composers. I only realized this amusing coincidence after selecting the pieces based on their texts, rather than the gender of their composers. Consequently, because most pieces featured in churches, recitals, and concert programs are by men, I thought it would be fun to provide a bit of background information on the women being featured this morning.

Jane Lindner (1940-2015) was a graduate of Luther College in Decorah, Iowa where she majored in German and music. She was an accomplished pianist, organist, and trumpet player. She also composed a substantial amount of music for the organ and children's choirs including today's selection, "Rejoice in the Lord."

Natalie Sleeth (1930-1992) was born in Evanston, Illinois and began her piano studies at a young age. She studied music theory at Wellesley College in Massachusetts and later earned an honorary doctorate from West Virginia Wesleyan College. Married to a minister and a devout Methodist herself, Natalie wrote many of the texts that she set to music, as is the case in today's "Blessing."

Emma Lou Diemer (b. 1927) is the most prolific of our three female composers featured today. She earned degrees from The Eastman School of Music and Yale University, and a PhD in composition from Eastman in 1960. She has written numerous works for orchestra, various chamber ensembles, organ, harpsichord, piano, voice, chorus, and electronic media. Today's anthem, "Jesus, Lover of my Soul," was written in 1974 and like many of Diemer's choral works, she weaves one of her beautifully composed melodies in and out of attractive harmonies on the piano and adds a stunning flute descant.
