

THE MIDDLETON CENTER

for pastoral care and counseling

The Middleton Center Practitioner

Patricia Danzon, Ph.D., M.A., earned a Master of Arts in Holistic Spirituality and Spiritual Direction from Chestnut Hill College and a Certificate in Supervision of Spiritual Directors from the KAIROS School of Spiritual Formation. She also holds a PhD in economics from the University of Chicago and has many years of experience teaching in health care management at the University of Pennsylvania. Patricia brings to the practice of Spiritual Direction a special interest in the integration of the spiritual and intellectual approaches to life, and a passion for the arts, especially photography. She offers individual and group spiritual direction. She is a member and deacon at BMPC.