PRELUDE

WELCOME

Rachel Pedersen

Please stand, if able.

CALL TO WORSHIP

One The heavens are telling the glory of God;

All and the firmament proclaims God's handiwork.

One Day to day pours forth speech,

All and night to night declares knowledge.

One Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart

All be acceptable to you, O Lord, my rock and my redeemer.

HYMN 409 God is Here!

ABBOT'S LEIGH

CALL TO CONFESSION & PRAYER OF CONFESSION

All God of the whole human family, you sent Jesus among us as the light of the world to reveal your love for all people. We confess that often our sin and pride hide the goodness of your light. Too often, we ignore cries for justice and do not strive for your peace. We see difference as a source of division and use language that tears down rather than builds up community. In your mercy, hear our confession and forgive us. Renew us to be transformed to show forth your love revealed in our Lord Jesus Christ, in whose name we pray.

A moment of silence for personal reflection and confession.

WELCOME TO BRYN MAWR PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

One of our more contemporary hymns, Let Us Build a House, includes this refrain: All are welcome; all are welcome; all are welcome in this place. It bears repeating! This church is a place to encounter friends who have been here longer than they can remember and first-time visitors, young and old and in between, seasoned disciples of Christ and seekers of spiritual connection. Through worship, program, fellowship, and mission, we are growing as a community of faith, and your presence is a sign of our genuine welcome.

The Rev. Dr. Agnes W. Norfleet
Senior Pastor

UPCOMING

Thursday Discussion Group. Thursdays, Sept. 19–Oct. 24, 10:00 a.m., via Zoom. Led by the Rev. Dr. Kirby Lawrence Hill, this fully online book discussion group will focus on how our religious resources can address the public and private fears that can dominate our society's life. This fall, we will spend five weeks on Michael Kinnamon's book, The Witness of Religion in an Age of Fear. Join the discussion as we explore how fear dominates our public focus and how our Christian faith, as well as other faiths, guides us in the public arena. Contact KirbyLHill@bmpc.org to join; reserve the book at <https://bit.ly/BMPCBookpickup>

"Frida Kahlo and the Art of Portraiture"
Class with Teaching Artist George Apotsos. 11:00 a.m.–1:30 p.m. on Fridays, Sept. 20–Oct. 25, in the Fine Arts Center. This art class will explore how Frida Kahlo used the self-portrait as a means of self-discovery and personal mythmaking and how to draw inspiration from one's own life story to depict thoughts, emotions, and identity in painting. This is primarily an acrylic painting class; however, collage and photomontage can be utilized, and oil painters are welcomed. Classes are free and limited to 10 registrants. To register, email ToriFisher@bmpc.org or visit <https://bit.ly/fridakahloclass>

Filling The Well. Starting Sun., Sept. 22, 8:45 a.m., Children's Library, Ed. Bldg. This Sunday morning class for women will study local scholar Peter Enns's book The Sin of Certainty: Why God Desires our Trust More than our Correct Beliefs. Enns offers a model of vibrant faith that views skepticism not as a loss of belief, but as an opportunity to deepen religious conviction with courage and confidence. The book models an acceptance of mystery and paradox that all believers can follow. This class is led by the Rev. Rebecca Kirkpatrick. Contact RebeccaKirkpatrick@bmpc.org to join the class and reserve a copy of the book.

Purple Documentary and Conversation. Sun., Sept. 22, 11:15 a.m., Congregational Hall. As we approach the fall elections, we will begin a series of conversations by viewing and discussing the documentary Purple: A Short Film Uncovering the Humanity Beneath Our National Conflicts. Filmed in rural Wisconsin and Iowa—in a swing region within two bordering swing states—Purple presents a rare political conversation that uplifts, provokes, and inspires while going toward the heat of passionate political differences. Following the 20-minute film, we will engage in large group and table conversations about how we can be in dialogue with one another and the people we love these days.

Sustaining Democracy Conversation. Sun., Sept. 29, 11:15 a.m. Congregational Hall. As we look forward to learning from Robert Talisse, our fall Community Forum Speaker, on Sept. 30, all are invited to a conversation on selected portions of his compelling book, Sustaining Democracy: What We Owe the Other Side. In both large and table conversations, we will explore concepts around citizenship, good-faith disagreement, and polarization. To receive a paper or digital copy of the book's introduction and chapter 2, contact Jenni-ferMcArthur@bmpe.org
